Introduction/Enrollment Message

It's a new year and the perfect time for a fresh start! Instead of making resolutions that often fall short, set goals for your wellbeing journey. Our challenge aims to help you develop healthy habits to lose or maintain a healthy weight this year.

Make Your Commitment Count:

- Reflect: What do I want to accomplish? What do I want to change?
- Plan: How will I incorporate these changes into my current lifestyle?
- Visualize: Where do I see myself 12 months from now on my wellbeing journey?

Earn Wellbeing Rewards:

- Participants who track and record their activities in the inHealth mobile app will earn rewards for their commitment and progress.

Set meaningful goals and make a commitment to a healthier lifestyle that lasts a lifetime.

Weekly Messages

Week #1

Accept where you are and start there. Things may seem daunting or even hopeless right now but starting a new journey will boost your spirits! What are you doing now that limits you from accomplishing your goal? Track your current habits and access them. Are they meeting your wellbeing expectations? Make a commitment to change your habits. You can start with the Fundamentals for a Healthy Life.

This week's tracking activity: Enter your starting weight to begin your journey. Here's how:

- Log in to the inHealth: Wellbeing app or web-based portal.
- Select Health Tracking from the main menu.
- Select Weight and click + Add Weight.
- Choose your date, type your entry, and click Add Data to save.

Week #2

Set realistic goals. Think about what you truly want to achieve—whether it's feeling healthier, finding more balance, or improving your overall wellbeing. Realistic goals start with self-awareness. Ask yourself:

- What does success look like for me?
- What steps will it take to get there?
- Am I ready to stay consistent and follow through?

This week's tracking activity: Write down one goal in your Wellbeing Journal you want to focus on this week and list the small actions you'll take to reach it. Reflect on what motivates you and how achieving this goal could improve your daily life. Here's how:

- Log in to the inHealth: Wellbeing app or web-based portal.
- Select Health Tracking from the main menu.
- Select Wellbeing Journal and click + Add Wellbeing Journal.
- Choose your date, type your entry, and click Add Data to save.

Week #3

Make a plan and take action. Turn your goals into a plan you can follow. Look at your week ahead and decide when you'll move, what you'll eat, and how you'll make time for self-care. Scheduling your goals helps turn good intentions into real results.

This week's tracking activity: Use your Wellbeing Journal to outline your plan for the week. Write down:

- When and where you'll be active
- How you'll prepare healthy meals
- One action you'll take each day to support your wellbeing

Here's how to add an entry to your Wellbeing Journal:

- Log in to the inHealth: Wellbeing app or web-based portal.
- Select Health Tracking from the main menu.
- Select Wellbeing Journal and click + Add Wellbeing Journal.
- Choose your date, type your entry, and click Add Data to save.

Stay accountable by checking in daily and noting your progress—it's the best way to keep your motivation strong.

Week #4

Move with intention! How much physical activity do you need to do to accomplish your goal? This week, make physical activity a daily priority. Choose activities you enjoy—walking, stretching, dancing, or strength training—and commit to moving your body every day. Consistency is key to building lasting habits.

This week's tracking activity: Track your movement each day in the inHealth app. Log your total minutes of activity or type of exercise completed daily. Aim for steady progress throughout the week and notice how regular movement improves your energy and mood. Here's how to track your physical activity:

- Log in to the inHealth: Wellbeing app or web-based portal.
- Select Health Tracking from the main menu.
- Select Physical Activity and click + Add Physical Activity.
- Choose your date, type your entry, and click Add Data to save.

Week #5

Build on your healthy habits! You've started creating great habits—now it's time to take them further. Maintaining progress means continuing to challenge yourself in small, realistic ways.

This week's tracking activity:

If you've been eating at least two servings a day, aim to increase the amount until you've reached the standard servings of vegetables required per day for a healthy lifestyle. Try new fruits or vegetables, experiment with different colors, and include them in every meal. Log your daily servings in the inHealth app to stay mindful of your choices and celebrate your consistency.

Here's how to track your fruits and vegetables:

- Log in to the inHealth: Wellbeing app or web-based portal.
- Select Health Tracking from the main menu.
- Select Fruits and Vegetables and click + Add Fruits and Vegetables.
- Choose your date, type your entry, and click Add Data to save.

Week #6

Reflect and stay accountable! You've spent the past six weeks building healthy habits—now it's time to see your progress and keep the momentum going. Share your experience and goals with friends, family, or coworkers. A strong support system helps you stay motivated and committed long after the challenge ends.

Weight Tracker:

Check your final weight for the challenge and record it in the inHealth app. Reflect on the healthy habits you've built and how they've improved your energy, mindset, and overall wellbeing. Keep tracking, stay consistent, and continue investing in your health journey. Here's how:

- Log in to the inHealth: Wellbeing app or web-based portal.
- Select Health Tracking from the main menu.
- Select Weight and click + Add Weight.
- Choose your date, type your entry, and click Add Data to save.
